ITINERARY

Day 1: Dehradun - Sankri

The Kedarkantha Winter Snow Trek starts from Dehradun. The trekkers need to arrive at Dehradun before 6AM. By 6:30AM, start your drive to Sankri. Located on the National Highway 123, the drive from Dehradun to Sankri is beautiful and is laden with valleys and forests. Just before Sankri, the landscape changes and you will feel closer to the mighty Himalayas. You will pass Govind National Park which is known for its beautiful range of unique plant life, specific to this area.

The Sankri village in Uttarakhand is referred to as the route to the Paradise of Himalayas for trekkers. The village offers magnificent views of the Himalayan skyline.

Overnight stay at Sankri.

Day 2: Sankri - Juda ka Talab

Start the much-awaited trek towards Juda ka Talab located at a height of 9,100 feet. The trek starts with beautiful pine and maple forests. On this trek, you will be a part of different kinds of adventures. As you trail upward, gorgeous looking huts alongside the fields will captivate you. Take in this moment that spells both simplicity and magnificence. You will also witness a dreamy view of a Goliath lake on the left, and thick pine and oak backwoods on the other side. Take in this beauty.

The lake also has a big natural tunnel that provides water to the villagers nearby. One of the most fascinating things about this trek is that you may spot a Himalayan Langur. You may also see boars, hares and martens in this region. Juda Ka Tal is undeniably an extremely beautiful destination in the thick pine and oak forest. At night, enjoy some hot food. Overnight stay in a camp.

Day 3: Juda ka Talab - Kedarkantha Base (Lohasu)

Wake up to a beautiful sunrise and post breakfast, start your trek for Kedar Kantha base, situated at 11,250 feet. It should take you between 2 to 3 hours from Juda ka Talab to Kedarkantha Base. As you move forward towards the Kedarkantha Base, the trail keeps getting steeper. It's important to pay attention to skills your guide teaches you for snow slopes and otherwise. The trek will start through dense forests and will also pass through steep ridges

Gear yourself up as you will soon witness the most stunning views that nature has to offer. As you are about to reach the base camp, you will see different arc-shaped ranges covered with snow. Some of these are Bandarpoonch, Swargarohini, Kala Naag and Ranglana standing tall, offering you an exemplary view. Enjoy a delicious dinner in your tent.

Day 4: Kedarkantha Base (Lohasu) - Kedarkantha Peak - Hargaon Camp

Day 4 is going to be a rather challenging day. Head towards the Kedarkantha peak. You will trek from 11,250 feet to 12,500 feet for almost 6 kms. The trail on this trek is relatively steeper. Witness the magical colors of nature and the beautiful sights of mountain ranges including Rupin.

Upon reaching Kedarkantha, treat your eyes with the splendid views of Bandarpoonch, Swargarohini, Kala Naag, Gangotri as well as Yamunotri. As you reach the summit, you will be left spellbound by the magic that nature offers. Kedarkantha is a photographer's dream, offering numerous inspirations.

There is also a small temple dedicated to Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvati along with a shrine of Lord Ganesh. Take in the magnificence and start descending to Hargaon camp. Overnight stay in camp in Hargaon

Day 5: Hargaon Camp - Sankri

The morning at Hargaon Camp will welcome you with a beautiful sunrise amidst the pine trees. After breakfast, descend further to Sankri. This trek, which will take you almost 4 hours, is a simple one and is a clearly marked paved pathway.

Day 6: Sankri - Dehradun

After breakfast, head to Dehradun from Sankri
